

Your Design

What God has designed in you includes your gifts, style, temperament, personality and talents. Read the following and write down your observations about God's design in your life.

I Corinthians 12

Ephesians 2

Psalms 139

Romans 12:3-8

I Peter 4:10,11

Your Relational Style

Your approach to relationships with other people grows out of your personality, talent, values and your past and current environments.

Summary Exercise

As you think about what God has done and what God has designed in your life, write a response to the following:

Through this process I've learned the following about myself.

How might your motivational gifts, personality type and values positively help birth a baby church?

What potential trouble spots can you identify in your leadership style?

What can you do to shore up your weaknesses and play to your strengths?
